

You're Invited

Join us at a Marvin Robbins Memorial Juniors Spring Turkey Hunting Camp

When: April 19-21, 2013 Contact: Rich Williams, azgobbler60@gmail.com

Where: Colcord Ridge Campground, located in northeastern Unit 23

You're welcome to camp with us.

- Talk to AGFD wildlife managers and experienced turkey hunters about where to hunt turkey in Units 3C, 4A, 4B and 23
- Camp funding by AG&FD Local Sportsmen's Group grant program.
- Units 23 and 3C are draw permit units in 2013.
- Hunt units 4A and 4B with an over the counter juniors tag.
- Turkey Hunting and Calling 101 seminars Friday and Saturday
- Very cool calls and giveaways to youth hunters, while supplies last
- Free lunch and dinner Fri. & Sat., snacks and drinks.
- Daily activities for family members
- Raffle prizes and gifts sponsored by Cabela's, A.E.S. and local chapters of the NWTF.
- Youth must be accompanied by Parent or Guardian at all times.

Juniors-only hunts are open to properly licensed youth ages 10 through 17. Consult regulations for age cut off definition. Participants must have a hunting license and the proper tag for the unit they hunt. Over the counter tags are available at any AGFD office or AGFD license dealer. Youth ages 10-13 must have passed a hunter education course. Legal weapon is shotgun, shooting shot.

Camp Limit of 75 Youth for 2013 Hunting Youth Will Have Preference

The camp is located at the Colcord Ridge Campground. South of Highway 260 on the road to Young AZ.

Bring your own camp and camping gear. There are Forest Service restrooms, but no electricity or water at the campground. Youth hunters must be properly licensed and should have camouflage and their own shotgun.

Camp Co-sponsors:

National Wild Turkey Federation

Arizona Elk Society

Arizona Game and Fish Department

Phoenix Varmint Callers

Valley Longbeards

NWTF

Cabela's